Why Your Chase Travel Refund Status May Not Update

There are several reasons why your 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719 refund status may remain stagnant or appear delayed:

- 1. Processing Delays by the Merchant: 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719
Travel providers, airlines, and hotels may take time to process refunds. Even if Chase receives the refund request, it might take 7–14 business days for the merchant to finalize the transaction.
 - 2. Bank Processing Times:
Once Chase receives the refund from the merchant, it can take 3–7 business days for the funds to reflect in your account. Weekends and holidays can extend this period.
 - 3. Technical Glitches: 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719 Occasionally, online banking systems may not update your refund status in real-time. The refund may have been processed, but the system shows “pending” until a manual update occurs.
 - 4. Disputed Charges or Pending Verifications:
If the refund involves a disputed charge or requires verification of supporting documents, the status may remain pending until Chase completes the verification process. 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719
